

Cookies Policy

SERVICIOS DE JUEGO ONLINE S.A.U. (hereinafter "Codere"), informs you about the use of cookies on this website. This cookie policy complements the website's privacy policy.

¿What are Cookies?

A cookie is a file that is downloaded to the user's computer/smartphone/tablet when accessing certain web pages to store and retrieve information from the terminal equipment. Among other functions, it makes it possible to store and retrieve information about a user's browsing habits to improve the service offered.

Types of cookies

The classification is as follows:

1. Depending on the entity that manages the domain from which the cookies are sent and processes the data obtained, two types can be distinguished:
 - First-party cookies: are those that are sent to your terminal equipment from our own equipment or domains.
 - Third-party cookies: those that are sent to your terminal device from a computer or domain of another entity outside the website editor.
2. Depending on the length of time they remain stored in the user's browser, these may be:
 - Session cookies: cookies that are activated while the user is browsing the website (while the session is active).
 - Persistent cookies: those cookies stored for a certain period in the user's device, to which the party responsible has access when the user connects to its website.
3. Depending on the purpose for which the data obtained are processed:
 - a. Technical cookies: are those that allow the user to navigate through a website, platform or application and the use of the different options or services that exist in it, including those that the editor uses to allow the management and operation of the website and enable its functions and services, such as, for example, control traffic and data communication, identify the session, access parts of restricted access, remember the elements that make up an order, make the purchase process of an order, manage payment, control fraud linked to the security of the service, make the application for registration or participation in an event, count visits for the purpose of billing licenses of the software with which the service (website, platform or application) works, use security features during navigation, store content for broadcasting videos or sound, enable dynamic content (for example, animation of loading a text or image) or share content via social networks.
 - b. Customization cookies: these are cookies that allow information to be remembered so that the user can access the service with certain characteristics that can differentiate their experience from that of other users, such as, for example, the language, the number of results to be displayed when the user performs a search, the appearance or content of the service depending on the type of browser through which the user accesses the service or the region from which the user accesses the service, etc.

- c. Analysis cookies: these are cookies that allow the party responsible for them to monitor and analyze the behavior of users of the websites to which they are linked, including the quantification of the impact of advertisements. The information collected through this type of cookies is used to measure the activity of the websites, application, or platform, to introduce improvements based on the analysis of the usage data of the users of the service.
- d. Advertising cookies: those that store information on user behavior obtained through the user's browsing habits, allowing the development of a specific profile to display advertising.

How long do we store your data, and do we transfer it internationally?

If, using cookies, we collect data considered, in accordance with current legislation, as personal data, we will process and retain them for the time necessary to achieve the purpose of their use, depending on each case. Once these purposes have been achieved, they may be duly blocked if they are necessary for the exercise, formulation of actions and claims in relation to their use. At the end of these periods, the information shall be erased.

The only international transfer planned with respect to the personal data that may be collected would be, when appropriate, to Israel, a territory declared safe by the European Commission's decision of January 31st, 2011. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to the transfers that, in each case, may be made by third party installers of cookies on our website, you can obtain information in their respective policies, accessible at the links indicated above.
